

AgileOne

Mobile SMS Messaging Terms and Conditions

1. Program Description

By opting in to receive text messages from AgileOne, you agree to receive automated transactional and notification messages at the phone number provided. Transactional messages include: order updates, appointment confirmations, appointment reminders, system alerts, password reset notifications, and other service-related updates. Consent is not a condition of any purchase.

2. Message Frequency

Message frequency varies and depends on your account activity. You will receive messages as needed in response to your actions, such as appointment confirmations, password resets, and system notifications. You will not receive recurring promotional messages unless you separately opt in for marketing communications. Message and data rates may apply.

3. Opt-Out Instructions

To stop receiving text messages from AgileOne, reply STOP to any message. You will receive a one-time confirmation message to verify your opt-out request. After you opt out, you will no longer receive messages from AgileOne.

4. Help Instructions

For assistance or to report problems with messages, reply HELP to any message, or contact AgileOne customer support at:

Email: agile1supportdesk@agile1.com

Phone: 1-800-872-2677 (ext. 993208)

5. Sender Identification

All text messages from AgileOne will be sent from AgileOne using a 10-digit local phone number. Messages will clearly identify AgileOne as the sender.

6. Carrier & Cost Disclosure

Participating carriers include AT&T, T-Mobile, Verizon, and all other major carriers. AgileOne is not liable for delayed or undelivered messages. Message and data rates may apply to all messages you send and receive. Please contact your wireless carrier if you have questions about your data or messaging plan.

7. Recurring Notifications

You will receive recurring appointment reminders and notifications based on your use of AgileOne's services. These messages are sent automatically when you take actions that trigger them (e.g., when you schedule an appointment, reset your password, or receive a system alert).

You can adjust notification preferences in your AgileOne account settings or opt out entirely by replying STOP to any message.

8. Consent and Data Use

By opting in, you acknowledge and agree that:

- You have provided express written consent to receive text messages from AgileOne
- Your phone number will be used solely for sending messages related to your AgileOne account and services
- You understand the types and frequency of messages you will receive
- You have read and acknowledge our Privacy Policy at <https://agile-one.com/privacy-policy/>

9. Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. We will only use your information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. You can review our complete Privacy Policy at: <https://agile-one.com/privacy-policy/>

10. Changes to These Terms

AgileOne may update these Mobile SMS Messaging Terms and Conditions at any time. Your continued use of the SMS service after changes are posted constitutes your acceptance of the updated terms.
